BMO

Harris Bank

“ We are excited to take a step forward in enhancing the level of financial support we offer our customers by leveraging SpringFour’s resources. We are committed to aiding customers in their journey to achieve and sustain financial stability.”

- Erminia (Ernie) Johansson, Group Head, U.S. Personal and Business Banking, BMO Harris Bank

A BMO Harris customer called her bank after falling behind on her loan payments. The agent she spoke with was able to provide SpringFour referrals in a variety of areas to help get her financial life back on track. After following through on these referrals, and catching up on payments, she called BMO Harris back to let them know just how thankful she was. She had never had a financial institution provide help like this before.
